

Ownership of media sources...TV, cable, radio, newspapers...must be diverse if citizens are to have freedom of speech. The FCC should protect citizens' right to hear various points of view. The FCC should not allow corporations to control information by controlling the media in an area.